

Friday 21st January 2022

LO: To use fronted adverbials.

Have a look at the picture - discuss

What time is it?

How are they walking?

What are they doing there?

How often do they go there?

What can you see around the girls?

What type of noises can you hear?

What do you think it smells like?

What do you notice about
the two sentences?
Similarities?
Differences?

1. Slowly and carefully,
the two young girls
travelled through the mysterious forest.

2. In the magical
forest, the soft petals shimmered light from the delicate flowers.

What is a fronted adverbial?

This is when a word or a phrase is put at the start of a sentence (followed by a comma), to explain how (manner), when (time) or where (place/location) something is being done.

Some words do end with an 'ly'.

A man hammered the rock, carefully.

Carefully, the man hammered the rock.

Fronted adverbials hunt

1. Read the paragraph in pairs
2. Underline all the fronted adverbials

Challenge:

Can you explain which fronted adverbial tells you how, when or where.

Check your answers

Before the sunrise, I woke up and immediately ate my breakfast. In the blink of an eye, my breakfast had vanished from my plate. It was my favourite breakfast of Weetabix with strawberries and a dollop of Nutella so I had eaten it super speedily. After I had got dressed, I decided to go outside to play on my brand new, emerald green bike. It has front suspension so I can quickly cycle downhill on it. Before long, it began to rain so I reluctantly put my bike away in the shed and went back inside. In the kitchen, I could smell pizza bubbling away in the oven which made my tummy grumble.

Our bank of fronted adverbials.

How?
When?
Where?

Our class example

Your turn

Write 5 sentences or paragraphs using fronted adverbials.

Extension:

Miss White thinks this sentence has a fronted adverbial.

'My bike, which is very old, broke on the way to school.'

Is she correct? Explain your answer.