Year 1/2 Homework Menu

'Space'

Maths Focus:

With place value to 100 and shape our focus for this half term, you could:

Go on a shape hunt around your house, how many different shapes can you name?

Use sticks and natural objects to make your own shapes. Can you describe their properties?

Design and make your own board game using numbers 1-100.

History Focus:

This half we are learning about Space and the astronauts Neil Armstrong and Helen Sharman. You could:

Visit the National Space Centre in Leicester.

Design and build your own rocket or Solar System.

Research an astronaut and create a factfile.

Reading Focus:

For at least one of the books you have read this half term:

Draw a picture of your favourite character and write some facts about them.

Write a letter to a friend about the book with reasons as to why they should or should not read it

Homework Expectations in Year 1/2:

- Read at least three times a week.

- Complete the weekly Sumdog activities.

- Learn and practise your weekly spellings.

- Choose and complete at least two activities from the Homework Menu during the half term. You can do more if you would like to.

All homework, including spellings, should be recorded neatly in your homework book, with the exception of Sumdog.

Homework books will be sent home on Fridays and should be returned on Wednesdays with completed homework and spellings.

Science Focus:

As we learn about seasonal change this half term you could:

Make your own weather station at home and record the daily weather.

Design and make your own seasons poster.

Find out in which seasons important events happen e.g in which season is your birthday?

DT Focus:

Practice using your knowledge of mechanisms and levers to make your own Christmas cards with moving parts.

PSHCE – Anti-bullying Focus

The focus for Anti-bullying week this year is 'Break the Silence'. You could discuss what bullying means at home, do you know the different types of bullying. Talk about what to do if someone is unkind to you. Create an anti-bullying poster that we could put up around school.
